World Book Day

Yesterday we celebrated a belated World Book Day and it was super to see all of the children come to school in their costumes.

During the morning the children carried out book activities in their classrooms and in the afternoon they joined together in groups to design their own book covers based on the book that their lead Y6 pupil had brought in.

All of these will be displayed, along with the many photographs taken during the day, in the library for everyone to see.

At 2.30pm we gathered together in the hall to discover who had won the prizes for the best costume. It was a difficult job for the two judges - Ruth and Mrs Wallis - as the children had worked really on their costumes.

Well done to:-

Class 1 - Jamie Junior Unsworth

Class 2 - Year 1 - Jack Roberts

Class 2 - Year 2 - Kieron Shelley

Class 3 - Y3 - Jennifer Owen

Class 3 - Y4 - Arthur Elden

Class 4 - Y5 - Mya Patel

Class 4 - Y6 - James Hammarton-Moses

Class 4 received the accolade for the best dressed class!!
Many thanks go to Mrs Brecht who organised the whole day.

Your child will be bringing their book token home today.

The Roman Cup

It was the second round of the Y3/4 Roman Cup Competition yesterday.

We are still waiting for the results but everyone played really well and tried their best.
